

P.Bad. 2.22

Scan: Heidelberger Papyrussammlung

Ankyron kome, Herakleopolite nome, AD 126

Labor(?) contract (synchoresis)

Agreement proper

... Apynchis agrees that he is immediately liable to seizure, until he fulfills (BL 8, p. 14) everything and pays back the sum of all the aforementioned wages plus a 50% (penalty) as well as the damages and expenses and an additional fine (to the state) of a hundred silver drachmas, |⁵ while the right of execution (of the claim) belongs to Martialis from Apynchis and from all his property, just as if by virtue of a legal decision. When (Apynchis) does everything (in the contract) without reproach, Martialis (agrees that he) will dissolve this contract when the time is up and Apynchis |¹⁰ has executed (the contract) without reproach, and (Martialis agrees that) he will not take anything (from Apynchis at that time), otherwise (Martialis agrees that) he will pay the same fine.

Request for registration

We request (registration).

Date

In the tenth year of Emperor Caesar Traianus Hadrianus Augustus, in the month Kaisareios, (day) 4 (BL 8, p. 14).

Note of the clerk

|¹⁵ Heliodoros: it has been registered (BL 8, p. 14).

Note on the back

Martialis' contract for Apynchis' son.