

P.Oxy. 12.1471

ET: P.Oxy. 12, p. 208

Scan: <https://dl.atla.com/collections/oxyrhynchus-papyri?locale=en>

Oxyrhynchus (found), AD 81

Loan contract (synchoresis)

Note

Debt. Sheet [.]3.

Addressee

To Pallas, priest, archidikastes, and officer in charge of the chrematistai and the other courts,

Parties

|<sup>5</sup> from Marcus Longinus castrensis, an honourably discharged veteran, and from Teteoris daughter of P-, Persian, with her son ... as guardian, both inhabitants of the metropolis |<sup>10</sup> of the Oxyrhynchite nome,

Contract

Teteoris agrees that she has received from Marcus Longinus castrensis from hand to hand (in cash) a loan of thirty-eight imperial silver drachmas at an interest of one drachma |<sup>15</sup> per mina each month, which interest (she agrees that) she will pay regularly to M. Longinus castrensis, and (she agrees that) she will perforce return the capital in four months from Tybi of the |<sup>20</sup> present first year of Emperor Caesar Domitianus Augustus without any delay or else (she agrees that) she is liable to seizure and can be held until she pays to M. Longinus castrensis |<sup>25</sup> immediately the loan of thirty-eight silver drachmas plus a 50% (penalty) and the interest and the interest for the overtime at the same rate, while Marcus |<sup>30</sup> Longinus castrensis has the right of execution (of the claim) from both Teteoris and all her belongings, just as if by virtue of a legal decision.

Date

In the first year of Emperor Caesar Domitianus Augustus, Tybi 5

Note of the clerk(?)

|<sup>35</sup> ...